is essential for the consular agents at the various ports to be active in supporting their countrymen, whenever the Chinese endeavour to invade their treaty rights. No doubt, appeals are at times made to the Consuls for support in cases which will not justify their interference, but, although they are right in finally refusing to act in such instances, it is, at once their duty and their policy to act with promptitude and firmness whenever there has been a real infraction of treaty obligations. If this course be adopted, sufficient moral support will be afforded to the Chinese traders interested in the interior traffic to enable them to assert their rights with effect. From the nature of the trade, it is not likely that at any time the large proportion of it will be in the hands of foreigners, but it is only by supporting that portion which is in their hands, that we can force the Chinese authorities to respect the privileges as to commerce granted to their countrymen in common with ourselves, and to remove the various taxes and needless restrictions which stand in the way of a large development of trade in foreign goods all over the country.

The property of Messrs. Bell, Parker & Co., put up to auction yesterday, was sold to Mr. C. P. Chater, for the sum of $16,000. This indicates a heavy fall in the value of property, seeing that the lot in question was bought ten years ago for $52,000.

An error was made in the report of the case of Tung-ting-sa, Chung-ting-fu, in the Summary Court, in saying that the captain of the "Cee-ka-wan" was dead in connection with the case. It appears that it was some other vessel which was lost.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

August 19th.

Present:

H. E. THE GOVERNOR.

Hon. J. C. SMITH, Chie-Justice.

Hon. J. C. SMITH, Acting Colonial Secretary.

Hon. J. C. SMITH, Attorney-General.

Hon. C. MAY, Acting Colonial Treasurer.

Hon. W. ALEXANDER.

Hon. J. WHITALL.

Hon. J. HOWERT.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

BARRISTERS AND SOLICITORS.

H. E. THE GOVERNOR laid on the table the letter (already published) which he had received, signed by various members of the Community, with reference to the relative positions of barristers and solicitors in the Colony, and called upon the Hon. J. E. ROBERTS to bring forward the motion on the subject, of which he had given notice.

The Hon. Mr. HOWERT then rose and said—

I have now to bring forward the motion of which I gave notice at the last meeting of the Council. When I first proposed a change with reference to barristers and their clients, I scarcely knew to what extent the public feeling was upon the subject, but after having the Council on the subject, I have seen that the matter is not so clear as I had supposed. That feeling resulted in the letter addressed to the Colonial Secretary, which has been signed by nearly every merchant and banker in this place. It might have been signed by a much greater number of persons, if there had been more time, but it was supposed that that the meeting would have been held on a Saturday, and it was expedited.

The Hon. Mr. HOWERT then rose and said—
